

Our Mission is . . .

To bring Glory to God by showing forth the faithfulness and power He gives to those who carry out the Words of His Son Jesus Christ and in so doing provide evidence for others to believe and put their trust in the living God.

Our Vision is . . .

- To become a biblically functioning community by structuring church life around the development of small groups (cells) so that meaningful and caring relationships can take place and thus create an atmosphere where God's Word can be practiced.
- To allocate church resources around the equipping and training of small group leaders providing them with the very best in knowledge, understanding, and encouragement.
- To experience God in regular settings of corporate worship through relevant and lively forms of worship that allow for the operation of spiritual gifts and the preaching of God's Word where people are encouraged in their faith and guided in its application.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Tonight's Sermon - A World on Fire: how to live in a world that is in chaos.

The latest installment in The Hunger Games trilogy will soon hit the theaters. Set in post-apocalyptic America, the series invites its audience to watch Katniss, the heroine, fight for survival in a dangerous and volatile world. But forget how she handles it. What Jesus wants to know is how you'll handle it. Because, in case you haven't noticed, things have gotten crazy.

BGMC Christmas Challenge:

We're challenging kids and adults of Ekklesia to give a special gift this Christmas in the form of a special BGMC offering for missions. Your BGMC gift goes to help our missionaries with whatever they need to reach people with the gospel and to help those who need food, water, clothing, shelter, and God's love. We have a catalog of missions projects that you can contribute to in order to help people in Northern Asia. BGMC and Red Envelope Compassion are working together to make a difference in the lives of rural Chinese peoples and hundreds of minority people groups.

Attention all Ekklesia Kids: Fall Family Fun Night
